Streston, Mo., July 15.—Frank Brown and Jesse Myers, the last of a gang of five desperadoes who carried on robbery and murder with a high hand in New Madrid county last winter and during the spring, were hanged at New Maidrid this afternoon. The prisoners slept well last night, and at 6 o'clock this morning received holy communion at the hands of Father Connelly, after which both expressed a firm belief that they would go direct from the scaffold to heaven. At one o'clock and five minutes Sheriff Waters, accompanied by his brother, Dr. L. A. Waters, went to the jail and soon reappeared, Brown walking with the Sheriff and Meyers with the Doctor. The culprits ascended the gallows with a firm step, and

and Meyers with the Doctor. The culprits ascended the gallows with a firm step, and when asked by the Sheriff if they had anything to say, Meyers said "No," but Brown stepped forward, and addressing the great crowd present, said: "Gentlemen—I hope to make my home in heaven, by the grace of God. There is a fine crowd here to-day, and I hope to meet you all in heaven." The black caps were then put on, the ropes adjusted around their necks, the trap sprung, and the doomed men dropped. Meyers's rope was too long, and his feet touched the ground, but several of the gnards rushed to the open trap, drew him up a few inches and made the rope fast. After hanging twenty minutes the bodies up a few inches and made the rope fast, After hanging twenty minutes the bodies were cut down. In an attempt to arrest the gang for this act they shot and killed Charles Laforge, one of the Sheriff's posse, They were then hunted through New Madrid and Wayne counties, several hundred citizens joining in the chase, during which Sheriff Davis, of Wayne county, and County Collector Hatton were dangerously wounded. A day or two afterward James Hamilton, another of the band, was killed and Meyers severely wounded and captured by a party of citizens under Captain Leeper, and the next day Brown was arrested. The House of Commons last night went into committee on the Land bill. John Bright complained of Irish obstruction, and said the Irish members dared not vote against the emigration clause. Parnell protested against Bright's statement, and said he in ended to vote against the clause himself. Parnell then asked Gladstone what limitation the Government proposed to place on the emigration expenditure. Clause 26 was finally passed at 3:50 a.m., by 126 to 23. Ed-mund Leamy, Liberal Home-Ruler, member for Wexford city, moved to report progress. Gladstone then energetically attacked the Home-Rulers for their persistent, systematic obstruction. He said that, having miserably failed to denounce the bill in Ireland, the Home-Rulers sought, by obstruction of the emigrant clause, to re-establish their dam-aged reputations as true friends of Ireland. [Tremendous applause.] The House had sat daily, witnessing with indescribable pain the success of a small hand-ful of members and the degradation inflicted upon this noble Assembly which for generations had defended the rights of the attempting by mere persistence of words with out thought to pervert the deliberate convic-tions of the House and take the legislative functions out of the hands of the majority to place them in the power of the minority The House must now choose between suc-rumbing to attempts made with such unblushing openness and carrying the clause to a definite conclusion at this sitting. The harvest is progressing as favorably as the terribly hot weather will permit, but in some sections field labor is said to be terribly demoralized. At Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, July 15.—Notwithstanding the excessively hot weather, the provision trade has been active, the market very strong with an upward tendency and higher prices expected. While the stock here is not large, the general movement at this point has been large, and the Board of Trade report of re-ceipts and shipments is very considerably over the reports of last week.

Boston, July 15.—Special market reports of the Boston Commercial Bulletin Saturday morning will contain the following: "The cotton market continues to harden, and quotations have undergone a further advance of † to † per cent, since last week. Upland cotton delivered at the mills to-day averaged 11½c, against 11½c a week ago. All the leading makes of prints, and calicos also, will probably be opened before our next issue."

CHICAGO, July 15,-The local money market rules strong yet. Although loanable funds are plenty, the relations of demand special says that Ex-Senator Conkling ex-presses the opinion that the Albany Logisla-ture will elect Miller and Lapham. He seems to tally indifferent. He expects to return to to five per cent, on call and six to seven or to five per cent, on call and six to seven on time. The clearings for the week ending Saturday, estimated, are $41,000,000, a hand-some showing of nearly 333 per cent. in-crease. Eastern exchange is firm at a dis-count of 75 to 80c per $1000. Currency is called for by country banks, but not quite so > Perrsnung, July 15 .- An unusual activity firms, who usually close down their mills fo two weeks or more, in order to make the nec essary repairs, are running right along an patching up their weakened machinery a best they can. The manufacturers of special ies are especially busy, and have enough or night and day for a year. These firms are laboring under great disadvantages, as their customers demand that their orders be filled omptly, and their workmen, on account o tivity is attributed to the fact that the spring gitimate demand is much greater than in
